

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

1 JUNE 2019 - 31 MAY 2020

Statutory report on corporate governance, see section 107b of the Danish Financial Statements Act (Årsregnskabsloven)

BANG & OLUFSEN

This annual corporate governance report for Bang & Olufsen a/s forms part of the Management Review set out in the Annual Report for 2019/20 and covers the financial period 1 June 2019 to 31 May 2020.

- a description of the company's management structure;
- a description of the main elements of the Bang & Olufsen Group's internal control and risk management systems relating to financial reporting; and
- a review of the company's approach to the 'Recommendations for corporate governance from the Committee on Corporate Governance in Denmark', implemented by NASDAQ Copenhagen A/S in its 'Rules for issuers of shares' (the "Recommendations")

GOVERNANCE BODIES

Bang & Olufsen has a two-tiered management structure, where, as per current practice in Denmark, responsibility is divided between the non-executive Board of Directors and the Executive Management Board, which are independent of each other. The Board of Directors determines the overall strategy and supervises Bang & Olufsen's activities, management and organisation, while the Executive Management Board handles the day-to-day management and operation of the company. None of the members of the Executive Management Board are members of the Board of Directors.

Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is currently comprised of eleven members, seven of whom are elected by the shareholders at the annual general meeting and four of whom are elected by the employees. All of the shareholder-elected board members, including the chairman, are elected for terms of one year and currently all shareholder-elected board members are independent. Employee representatives are elected for terms of four years in accordance with current legislation. In 2019, M. Claire Chung, Tuula Ryttilä and Joan Ng joined the Board of Directors as new members elected by the annual general meeting.

The Board of Directors has adopted a set of rules of procedure which describes the work and duties of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors believes that members should be chosen for their overall competencies, and also recognises the benefits of board diversity in respect of experience, cultural background and gender. Each year, the Board of Directors considers the skills and competences that should be represented on the Board of Directors on the basis of a recommendation from the Nomination Committee.

When considering qualifications, experience and competencies of candidates for Board membership (including re-election), the Board of Directors and the Nomination Committee considers the following factors, in addition to such other factors that the Board of Directors may deem relevant:

1. Experience and competencies in:

Commercial areas:

- Sales, marketing and omni channel retailing of branded consumer- and luxury lifestyle products incl. e-commerce retailing
- Brand management, including licensing
- Consumer electronics concepts and customer experience
- Key market knowledge and experience
- Partnership relationship management

- External stakeholder relations, including corporate social responsibility, social media and brand communities
- Innovation processes, digitalisation including technology architecture, platforms and software development
- Supply chain, (out) sourcing and manufacturing within consumer products
- New product introduction

Leadership and corporate governance areas:

- Management and strategic development of international businesses within branded consumer products
- Strategy development and value creation processes
- Leadership and HR development
- Risk Management and internal controls

- Financial, accounting, IT and financing matters
 - Corporate governance of listed companies
2. Diversity of perspectives brought to the Board of Directors by the individual members.
 3. Personal characteristics matching Bang & Olufsen's values and leadership principles.

In order to align the interest of the Board members with the shareholders, Bang & Olufsen's board members, with the exception of the employee representatives, are, within 12 months of being elected to the Board, under an obligation to buy shares in the company for an amount equivalent to at least one year's base fee and to keep these shares for the duration of their board membership.

Information about the members of the Board of Directors, their other supervisory and executive positions, independence and individual competences can be found on pages 55-57 of the 2019/20 annual report.

Employee elected board members

Under the Danish Companies Act (Sel-skabsloven), employees of the Bang & Olufsen group's Danish companies have the right to elect a number of members and alternates to the Board of Directors equivalent to half the number of board members elected by the shareholders, but not less than two members.

The employees have chosen to elect board members at Bang & Olufsen group level, meaning that they only elect representatives to serve on the Board of Directors of the parent company, Bang & Olufsen a/s.

The most recent election of employees to the Board of Directors took place in May 2019 by written, secret, direct ballot. The employee-elected members joined the Board of Directors immediately after the Annual General Meeting in August 2019. Employee representatives are elected for terms of four years. The election of employees to join the Board of Directors after the Annual General Meeting to be held in 2023 will take place in early 2023. Employee representatives have the same rights, obligations and responsibilities as other board members.

As of 31 May 2019, the Board of Directors consisted of the following members:

Board evaluation process

The Chairman of the Board of Directors conducts an annual self-assessment and review of the Board's performance, addressing the effectiveness of the Board, the processes supporting its work, individual board members' contributions, the Chairman's performance and the cooperation with the Executive Management Board.

Each year the individual members of the Board of Directors and Executive Management Board performs a self-evaluation by anonymously completing a comprehensive online questionnaire, which is then summarised by an external consultant. Ratings and comments are consolidated and shared with the Board of Directors followed by a Board discussion where improvements are discussed.

The annual evaluation was carried out during April and the results of the evaluation shared with the Board of Directors in July 2020. According to the conclusion of the evaluation, the Board of Directors is generally well organized, well-functioning and the work in the Board is characterized by an open and trusted relationship and cooperation both between the members of the Board and the Executive Management Board. The self-assessment also concludes that the Board of Directors continues to demonstrate industry knowledge and experience which is well suited to support Bang & Olufsen's business and strategic direction reflected in the recent Strategy Plan developed during the period November 2019 - March 2020.

The evaluation also identified certain minor areas for improvement within the following areas:

- Increase focus on structured succession planning. This has also been an observation in previous years. However, as the organisation has been significantly changed and many managers in leadership positions have been replaced during the year, the succession planning process has not been materially improved yet. The Board will maintain focus on this area and steps have been and will be taken to improve the company's succession planning

- Allocation of more time for deep-dive discussions at each Board meeting

Steps have been taken to achieve improvements within these areas. The Chairman has held individual meetings with each of the other members of the Board of Directors to review their performance.

Executive Management Board

The Board of Directors appoints an Executive Management Board with responsibility for the day-to-day management of the company in accordance with the guidelines and recommendations set out by the Board of Directors. The Executive Management Board's responsibilities also include submitting proposals and recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding Bang & Olufsen's overall strategy and objectives. The Executive Management Board currently has four members and is headed by the CEO.

In March 2019, Snorre Kjesbu joined the Executive Management Board as Executive Vice President for Design, Creation and Fulfillment and in May 2019, Nikolaj Wendelboe joined the Executive Management Board as Executive Vice President, Finance and Legal (now Finance and IT), in October 2020 Kristian Teär joined the Executive Management Board as CEO and in November 2020, Christian Birk joined the Executive Management Board as Executive Vice President, Marketing, Digital and Customer Experience. In October 2020, then CEO Henrik Clausen left the company and in December 2020, John Mollanger, Executive Vice President, Brand & Markets left the company.

As of 31 May 2020, the Executive Management Board consisted of the following members:

CEO	EVP & CFO	EVP, MARKETING, DIGITAL AND CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE	EVP, DESIGN, CREATION & FULFILLMENT
Kristian Teär	Nikolaj Wendelboe	Christian Birk	Snorre Kjesbu

FINANCIAL REPORTING PROCESS AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Board of Directors and the Executive Management Board are responsible for Bang & Olufsen's risk management and internal control systems, including compliance with current legislation and other financial reporting standards. Bang & Olufsen's risk management and internal control systems in respect of financial reporting, including IT and tax, have been designed with a view to limiting the risk of errors and omissions in financial reporting.

CONTROL ENVIRONMENT

Internal control at Bang & Olufsen is based on the company's organisation, decision-making processes, powers and responsibilities, which are set out in and communicated via its corporate documentation, e.g. internal guidelines, code of conduct, etc. Internal control is also carried out on the basis of procedures described in manuals and memoranda. The Executive Management Board has set up central functions with responsibility for compliance and control with a view to ensure compliance with relevant legislation and other financial reporting requirements and to check financial reporting by subsidiaries and associated companies. Bang & Olufsen has set up a separate audit committee consisting of two board members. The Audit Committee is charged with the task of evaluating and discussing important accounting and financial reporting issues.

Risk assessment

The Executive Management Board and the Audit Committee perform an assessment of the risks relating to financial reporting for the entire Bang & Olufsen group at least once a year, including:

- material accounting estimates
- material changes in accounting policies
- an assessment of fraud risks

The purpose of this risk assessment is to identify the financial reporting processes that are most likely to contain material misstatements. Based on such risk assessment, Bang & Olufsen's focus is to implement measures with a view to managing and reducing risk in these processes.

CONTROL ACTIVITIES

The control framework consists first and foremost of an organisation with clearly defined roles that support the efficient and, in terms of internal control, relevant allocation of responsibilities, supported by specific control activities aimed at identifying and preventing material errors and omissions in the financial reporting. These control activities are based on an evaluation of materiality and risk. The purpose of the control activities is to ensure that objectives, policies, manuals, procedures etc. communicated by management are complied with and possible errors, discrepancies and omissions are prevented, discovered and corrected in time. Control activities include manual and physical checks, general IT checks and automatic application checks in IT systems, for example.

Management has established procedures for consolidated financial reporting that encompass budget reporting and monthly reporting, including budget discrepancy reporting with ongoing adjustment of estimates for the year. In addition to the income statement, balance sheet and cash flow statement, ongoing reporting also includes notes and other disclosures.

The Audit Committee has assessed the need for an internal audit function and has decided that this is not required due to the size and level of complexity of the company in combination with the fact that existing internal control and risk management systems and processes are considered satisfactory.

Information and communication

Integrated management systems, financial reporting manuals and other reporting instructions are regularly updated. Changes in policies and accounting procedures are disclosed and explained to the parties involved on an ongoing basis.

Financial reporting is done in a single shared reporting system, which assures the parent company of full transparency in relation to the individual reporting units. Financial reporting is backed up by monthly reporting from the individual units.

MONITORING

The risk assessment process and control activities are monitored on a timely basis. Monitoring consists of both formal and informal procedures, which are used by the management and the people who own processes, risks and control procedures. Performance is monitored closely and compared with budgets and plans, analytical procedures and important key figures and financial ratios. The management continually monitors for compliance with relevant legislation and other financial reporting requirements and reports its findings to the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee.

The Board of Directors considers at least once a year whether the internal control systems are adequate. The internal control systems are discussed with the independent auditors at the board meeting at which the annual report is considered. Based on what the auditors state in the long-form audit report, the Board of Directors and independent auditors discuss the outcome of the audit, material accounting policies used, material accounting estimates and the appropriateness of the accounting policies used.

The Board of Directors and the Audit Committee monitor management's response to any control weaknesses and/or lack of controls and ensure that the measures agreed to improve risk management and internal controls in respect of financial reporting are implemented according to plan. The management is responsible for following up on weaknesses in internal control identified in subsidiaries.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR CORPORATE GOVERNANCE IN DENMARK

Bang & Olufsen is subject to the Recommendations for Corporate Governance as updated in November 2017 (the “Recommendations”), prepared by the Danish Committee on Corporate Governance.

The Board of Directors regularly reviews Bang & Olufsen’s corporate governance framework and policies in relation to the Recommendations as well as any relevant statutory requirements and continuously assesses the need for adjustments. As of 31 May 2020, Bang & Olufsen complies with all of the Recommendations.
